#1: Construction of the east and north curtain walls continue with final glazing installations. #2: Installation of metal brackets, lighting fixtures, and acoustical ceiling tiles continues in the Forum.
#3: Construction of the west shafts continue with installation of waterproofing membrane and metal panels. Utility installation and grading operations are taking place on the west side of the building. #4: Installation and testing of lighting fixtures in the study lounge on level 6 is underway. #5: Glazing is being installed on the hangar doors on the south side of the Forum. #6: The exterior concrete sidewalk on the east side at the main entrance is underway.